Interesting Ideas for Social Distancing

These ideas are meant to help your circle find creative and exciting new ways to connect during this time of social distancing!

ONLINE PRAYER MEETINGS

Join one of the prayer groups in your parish for a Rosary or Divine Mercy Chaplet. This is a great way to show the presence of the Squires and to grow in brotherhood through prayer. It is through prayer groups that you have the opportunity to build relationships with other parish members outside of your circle, pray for specific intentions, as well as strengthen your own relationship with Christ.

CIRCLE DONATIONS

With the ongoing pandemic, many people are struggling with job loss and the inability to have a steady source of food and other necessities. For this event, host a conference call with your circle and decide what charity your circle wants to or could, possibly donate to, that is related to COVID-19 relief. Then you can all pool up some funds and donate this to help the less fortunate out! Make sure to check on your squires as well and make sure that everyone is doing well and is alright!

ONLINE GAMES NIGHT

With self-isolating and social distancing, feeling connected can be challenging. Playing games is a great way to relieve stress and feel connected with others. Host a remote game night with friends and family to feel connected. There are lots of options for playing games online right now. Search online board games or party games or host your favourite online game night. I recommend sending out an invite to save the date and time. You could go as far as setting up a Google hangout or Zoom chat so you can all connect online at the same time. If you are not up to hosting a game night there are opportunities to play Scrabble, 8 Ball, Cup Pong, and many other games daily with friends and family. If you are not an online gamer try a family game night with traditional card games and board games. Most importantly remember to connect and have some laughs with your family and friends.

ONLINE MOVIE NIGHT

During this time of quarantine, there are still many ways that you can help to get more members into your circle. The best way to reach out to potential squires during this time of self-isolation is through an online movie night. Invite some of your friends to join you on an online movie night, and use websites like Netflix party to talk to them and watch the same movie together. During breaks, take a moment to explain to them the core principles of the Squires program and what responsibilities are involved.
